

“Oh That We Would Learn to Praise God

For His Goodness”

Pastor Paul 10/25/2020

Psalms 107

Ephesians 2 review: 1. death to life—lying on the floor
2. empty vanity to fruitful goodness—trapeze swinging in the air
3. strange hostility to peace—engrafted into the vine
4. alienation to eternal dwelling—stones from a field become fence

Introduction: Four places and experiences that will take us down without God but can become the means of saving us forever with God . . .

The wilderness wail and then the way out (1-7)

The prison prayer and then the pass out (8-16)

The hospital holler and then the health release (17-21)

The sea supplication and then the salvation rescue (22-42)

The willingness of us to die to self and the world & the wisdom of God to live skillfully through us . . .

Life with and without a windshield . . .

Seeing beyond the affluence, affliction, and the affairs going on presently . . .

Special Announcements

We look forward to our fellowship meal today. We will celebrate communion today as well. The theme for our fellowship meal is "Soup Sunday." Join us as we soup together after the worship service.

We hope to present to you the congregation the leaders you have suggested and your elders have approved the beginning of November. We are excited about beginning a new chapter for our Church in the days ahead.

Thanksgiving is right around the corner. Today we will deal with a passage of Scripture from the Psalms that will begin to encourage us in the practice of being thankful. We would encourage you to begin thinking of how you can capture what you are thankful for this last year. Pick up your large sheets of paper on which to begin planning your thanksgiving testimony that you can share with the rest of us on Sunday the 22nd of November.

Please pick up a prayer card on the back table as we seek to pray character into our kids through postcard prayers.

We are looking for someone to oversee the Christmas giving to our missionaries. Please see a leader if you would be interested in serving in this way.
