Special Announcements

Please come celebrate our Lord's birth on Christmas Eve Thursday the 24th of December. We will sing Christmas Carols, Hear a Christmas message, and pray together. The celebration will begin at 5:00PM.

Please keep praying for our nation as we are undergoing a purging of evil by God. Insure that you as an individual, you as a family, and we as Church are holding tightly and faithfully to God amidst the storms of affliction. Instead of blaming others around us we need to seek to be humble yet strong for the truth. We need to keep up our faith, expressing it in a local community way, ever exalting the Lord no matter what comes our way. Thanks so much for being a part of this faith community. Let us enter this new year with a renewed zeal to be salt and light in our community.

Please pick up a post card to pray for the kids in our Church. Thank you Karen Sorenson for putting these cards together.
