

“A Path Well Ridden”

Isaiah 22:1-14

Pastor Paul 4/10/22

Introduction: The triumphant entry of Jesus into the city of Jerusalem is recorded in all four gospels—Matthew 21:1-11 / Mark 11:1-10 / Luke 19:28-44 / John 12:12-19

SO MUCH WENT RIGHT AND AS IT SHOULD BE ON THIS DAY. . .

As we make the most of each of our days a good path has opportunity to get ingrained and well established in our lives which is a very wonderful thing. When we forsake the assembling together and meeting with the Lord personally and let a less than good path get worn into our lives day after day establishing deep ruts that are difficult to get our way out of. There is a time for weeping over the rotten paths we have worn and there is a time of rejoicing over the redemptive path Jesus can lead us onto.

Such was the case of the people who lived in Jerusalem in Isaiah’s day and is instructive for us to learn from in where we are at in living in our cities today . . .

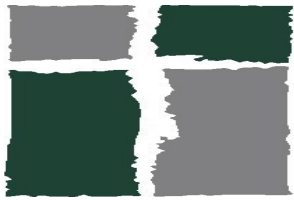

Isaiah 22:1-14

Application: What path are you on? Who is on the path with you? Can adjustments be made regarding the path you are on and do you know how to make them?

Special Announcements

Please extend your stay with us today after the worship service. Wendy Brunson is hosting our fellowship meal around the "family favorites" theme.

There are plenty of palm branches to pick up and wave around this morning. Assist the trees to clap their hands in praise and worship of our great God. You are welcome to take the palm branches home with you today.

The women's Wednesday night Bible Study will begin working on 1,2, and 3rd John. This Wednesday chapter 1 of I John will be under investigation and application. Come dig deeper in relationships with God and others.

We are looking forward to join several other congregations on Friday night the 15th of April as we celebrate Good Friday. We will be joining Ingelsia de Christo Church as they lead us in worship through music and the word. Several pastors have been working on putting this service together. Come celebrate our joint focus on Jesus and the cross. The service will be translated in English. What a joy it will be to hear two languages praising the Lord together. The service will begin at 7:00 PM and there will be snacks to share with each other after our time together.

Please take a prayer post card with you today to pray for one of our fantastic young people in the congregation.

Please remember to bring your bejeweled cross to the Resurrection Worship Service next Sunday. We will have you place your cross on the tomb we constructed. It will be fun to see our families represented on the top of the tomb. Come ready to celebrate our God bursting forth from the grave!
