Special Announcements

A big thank you to Susan Palmer and the supporting staff that worked with her Monday through Wednesday of last week. Great things happened at Kookaburra Coast Vacation Bible School and we appreciate all the support, encouragement, and the opportunity to work together as a congregation to love on the young people in our community. Please consider how God would enable us to even better utilize the gifts and love He has given to our congregation to bless our own young people as well as those in the community.

Children (with their parents) are invited to make braided jump ropes made from old t-shirts on Tuesday July 19 at 9:00. Adult sized t-shirts are needed for this project. Ones with holes and stains work well. They will be collected over the next two weeks. The project is free. Please bring fabric scissors.

We have some special guest speakers lined up for for the next three Sundays ahead in July. Next Sunday, the 10th of July Jered Stanley will be preaching from God's Word and sharing his ministry in Young Life among the boys at Rawhide Boys Ranch. On the 17th of July Doctor Ken Ellison, Melissa Franzmeier's father & Pastor's favorite father-in-law, will preach on Jonah. On the 24th of July the Diedrich family will be visiting us and Jeremiah will preach and share their past and present ministry as the whole family participates at the EAA in Oshkosh. We will be celebrating a fellowship meal after their ministry among us so we all can get to know each other better. What a loaded July to look forward to!

Dan Froding has been released from the hospital and is now residing at Crossroads Care in Weyauwega. Continue praying for his recovery so he can return home and fellowship physically again with us.
