

“Table Talk”
Psalm 35:3b,23

Pastor Paul 8/21/22

Reading and reflecting on “The Pout Pout Fish” children’s book . . .

Wrestle with why we, others, and society is in the condition it is in . . .

What will bring to life the power to transform ourselves, others, and the whole society?

Larger context of Psalm 35:

Fight for me (1-10) / Rescue me (11-18) / Vindicate me (19-28)

Introduction:

“Say to my soul, I am your salvation.”

Where can I attain full assurance?

Who is necessary to speak this full assurance directly and personally to me?

When is this full assurance needed to come about?

How will this full assurance come about?

What can I expect to experience?

Why is full assurance so necessary?

“Stir up Yourself , and awake to my right and to my cause, my God and my Lord.”

Prayer and Communion:

“And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end”

What keeps you from experiencing the full freedom and holiness God offers to us? What present or lingering curses from the past would you like to see reversed? By aligning yourself with God, desiring to fly in the spiritual life, teaming up with others and simply having a willing heart to see things change indeed the curse will be reversed. Will you believe this with us? Let’s together see the curse get reversed.

Please consider helping out with the AWANA ministry to kids this fall. A sign up sheet is available on the sound table.

We will try to have handouts available for the children to interact with so they benefit personally from the sermon portion of the worship service. Your feedback
