Special Announcements

A big thanks to all who donated with time, talent, and thoughtfulness to this year's VBS. Over 80 people contributed to the fun. What a great God we serve, a great community of people we live among, and some great kids that are in our midst.

The next four Sundays we will explore some sage advice from the apostle Paul at the end of his life from his second letter to younger Timothy. Along with the sage advice we will witness Paul's human need for authentic relationships, faithful service, gift development, and fierce loyalty. We can take to heart some very practical and very powerful ways to center of lives and get them on target for the days ahead.

Let's keep Karen Sorenson in our prayers as she is half way through her medical treatments. We can't thank you all enough for taking prayer seriously as God has used your prayers to make a difference in so many lives. Keep up the good work.

We have a good condition exterior door we would like to give to someone who needs it as well as two twelve paneled 36" oak doors. And two 6 paneled 36" pine doors. Please let pastor Paul know of you interest in these items.

MERCY: 1. That benevolence, mildness or tenderness of heart which disposes a person to overlook injuries, or to treat an offender better than he deserves; the disposition that tempers justice, and induces an injured person to forgive trespasses and injuries, and to forbear punishment, or inflict less than law or justice will warrant. In this sense, there is perhaps no word in our language precisely synonymous with mercy That which comes nearest to it is grace. It implies benevolence, tenderness, mildness, pity or compassion, and clemency, but exercised only towards offenders. mercy is a distinguishing attribute of the Supreme Being. 2. An act or exercise of mercy or favor. It is a mercy that they escaped. 3. Pity; compassion manifested towards a person in distress. 4. Clemency and bounty. 5. Charity, or the duties of charity and benevolence. 6. Grace; favor. 7. Eternal life, the fruit of mercy 8. Pardon. 9. The act of sparing, or the forbearance of a violent act expected. To be or to lie at the mercy of, to have no means of self-defense, but to be dependent for safety on the mercy or compassion of another, or in the power of that which is irresistible; as, to be at the mercy of a foe, or of the waves.
