Special Announcements

The next two Sundays we will explore some sage advice of the apostle Paul and some sincere receptivity from Timothy in Paul's second letter written to Timothy. We have looked into operating in merciful relationships, and in delivering faithful services. Today we will explore God's ageless development of ageless gifts and the following Sunday we will consider defending core loyalties even to the point of suffering for it in all three areas—relationships, services, and gifts. Let's all live on target!

Mark your calendars for our next fellowship meal on Sunday the 25th of August. We plan on holding our communion worship service here at the Church and then travel over to the Cuff's farm for a fellowship meal on their grounds. More details to come.

Dan and Whitney Kieffer have been driving for meals on wheels in New London for almost 2 years. They have found it to be fun and easy and takes us a little over 1 hour to complete. They do Tuesdays twice a month. Each route is a bit different. The routes are scheduled for Monday - Thursdays. They are in bad need of more drivers! It's morning deliveries they are really needing. Meals are ready about 10:15-10:30. You load up and then go. They wonder if you are available or if you know anyone who could run meal even once a month? People not working or home school kids can do it for a service project. If you have questions or are willing to help out contact Whitney at 612-387-4538.

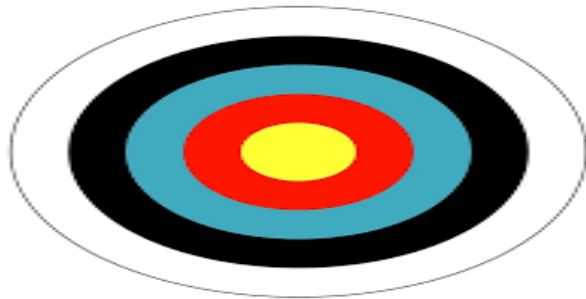

Joshua, Gabriella and Rosalie Gaigg are in need of help with the burden of medical bills since Josh had suffered Cardiac Arrest on June 10th and was hospitalized for the next 6 days, 4 of which were spent in the Intensive Care Unit. Josh is doing well, the family now has to make some hard decisions about his vocation and next steps. Prayer is also very welcomed for this young family. Thank you and give God the glory for Josh's miraculous recovery!

We could use your help in filling the needed openings in our worship schedule, nursery schedule and fellowship meal schedule until the end of the year. See Alex, Abe, and pastor Paul to find out more of what is needed.

Save the date: Ladies' VBS (one night only) invite others. Tuesday September the 10th from 6:30-8:30 PM Includes: Message, music, prayer, game, craft, snack. See Rochelle Rosenthal for more information.

“On Target Living part 3”
2 Timothy 1:6-7, 9-12

Pastor Paul 8/4/24

The individual lives and corporate relationship between Paul and Timothy . . .

Christ and the gospel unites these two together and have the power to do the same with us.

God determined their relationship uniquely to Him, sovereignly with each other, and ultimately with us and future generations in mind.

God delivered their services then, now, and into the future.

God developed their gifts, rationally, responsibly, and respectfully.

Consideration of the ant . . .

Application: You have a gift, keep it stoked.
You have everything you need to accomplish everything you've been assigned to.
