“Angels”
Luke 2:13-20 Pastor Paul 12/8/24

Imagine a time, a place, and a way that all creation gathers to bow down and praise the Lord most high (Psalm 148:1-14)

The Scriptures doesn't leave it up to our imagination or initiation . . .

The angels worship in creation—Job 38:4-7

The angels worship in incarnation—Luke 2:13-20

The angels worship in consummation—Revelation 5:8-12

The angels visit mankind and invite them to join them rather than mankind's inviting angels to join them.

Because of the angel's coming to us as they do . . .

Shepherds went to “see things” Luke 2:15

All wondered at “the things” shown, heard, and felt Luke 2:18

Mary pondered all “these things” Luke 2:19

We shouldn't worship, write off, or wish away angels but rather we should receive them as good gifts from a great God and reflect God's righteousness because of them.

3 monumental things from God through angels

3 motivating transformations from angels to us

3 miraculous turn-arounds from us to the world
