Special Announcements

This morning we invite you to go deeper in your prayer life and in your application to what God’s Word is saying to each of us. Last week we studied a portion of God’s Word in 2 Chronicles that really was extraordinary and very enlightening. True revival took place in history that lasted for years. Do you believe God can do it again in our day? This morning we want to apply that message to our own lives as we pray back the Scriptures in a very relevant way corporately. So open up your Bible to 2 Chronicles 14-15 and pray the words back to God following the lead of the Holy Spirit. We encourage you to practice the ABC’s of corporate prayer—be audible so we can all hear what you are praying, be brief and succinct as God is a clear communicator and speaks in simple and clear ways, and be Christ Centered. Please stay actively engaged in the prayer worship experience today and let us know what you learned through the experience.

“LIFT (Ladies In Faith Together) plan to meet Thursdays April 24th through May 29th from 9:30-11:00 AM. We desire to provide free childcare and a room for homeschoolers. Please contact Rochelle 920-740-6028 or Linda W. 208-794-8412 for more information about this ministry to women of all ages and stages of life or if you are interested in being paid to supervise children.

It is that time of year to fill the homeless shelves with all sort of supplies. The box to put your donations is located next to the cookie table.

The Church leaders will be meeting on Thursday night the 6th of March. Please let a leader know if you have something you want us to consider to bring up to the group.

Sermon text for next week: Nehemiah 4:1-23

Review: Is it still wise to seek God wholeheartedly?
Are there still rewards for reforming?

History:

On the Road Again . . .

It is Always Foolish to Sin?
Does compromise always cost?

Why?

Remaining separated . . .

Remaining scared . . .

Remaining sick . . .

How can you hit the mark??
